FAXCOM Anywhere Office Service

FAXCOM Anywhere is Biscom's hosted version of our award winning computer fax server solution, designed for organizations that require robust fax technology, the highest quality, and the know-how that comes from meeting the fax needs of large and small businesses for over 20 years.

Biscom knows how critical electronic fax communications are to the lifeblood of businesses of all sizes. When communicating by fax with customers, vendors, or potential clients, companies should not have to choose either a hosted service or their own fax server(s). Recognizing the need for flexibility, Biscom offers both a hosted fax service and an on premise solution, which guarantees a seamless growth path as faxing requirements increase.

As a developer of computer fax solutions for organizations with intensive, mission critical fax requirements, Biscom has acquired a deep understanding of how best to integrate fax into the corporate network. We understand that fax services must support existing business processes, and we are proud that scores of the world's largest and most renowned organizations have selected us to solve their critical faxing needs.
